He is currently leading EY's financial services audit and assurance practice in the South West & Wales. Richard joined the governing body at Redland High School in December 2014 and chaired the Finance Committee at Redland. He is also the father of two Redland old girls.

Mrs Gillian Rowcliffe, BEd

Safeguarding & Education Committee

Gillian completed her BEd at Bristol University before teaching, for seven years, at Redland High Junior School. In 1986 she arrived in an empty building with the brief to create a junior school. She then spent the next 29 years as the Headteacher of The Red Maids' Junior School, which she described as 'specialising in all-round excellence'. She retired in 2014, leaving a thriving school, in an award-winning building, with over 120 pupils. It was listed as 'outstanding' in all areas during the last ISI Inspection and consistently ranks as one of the Top 100 Prep Schools in the country. A further expansion took place in 2015 to accommodate the ongoing demand for places. She has two sons who both went to QEH.

Mrs Anne Taylor

Facilities & Resources Committee (Chair)

Anne was educated at Red Maids' and worked for the Old Girls' Society (now The Red Maids' Society) for the next 10 years, becoming the youngest ever Chairman in 1967 and is still very actively involved in the running of the Society. Anne spent her working life in the travel industry and during the last 15 years of her career was a Director for Thornton's Travel Service in Bristol.
